LESSOR'S COPY

In the case of differences between this document and the laws that apply to leased premises, the laws take priority.

GENERAL INFORMATION

These particulars describe most of the rights and obligations of educational institution-lessors and student-lessees. They summarize the essential points of the law concerning leases, i.e. articles 1851 to 1978 of the Civil Code of Québec (C.C.Q.), and the specific rules pertaining to leases in an educational institution contained in articles 1979

The examples given in the particulars are provided for information purposes and are used to illustrate a rule. To find out the other obligations to which the parties to a lease may be subject, please refer to the Civil Code of Québec. No right may be exercised with the intent of injuring another or in an excessive and unreasonable manner that is contrary to the requirements of good faith (arts. 6, 7 and 1375 C.C.Q.).

The particulars apply to any premises leased for residential purposes, as well as to the services, accessories and dependencies attached to the room, whether or not they are included in the lease of the room or in another lease. Some exceptions apply (art. 1892 C.C.Q.).

Except if the size of the room justifies it, an educational institution may not refuse to enter into a lease with a person or to maintain the person in his or her rights, or impose more onerous conditions on the person for the sole reason that the person is pregnant. Nor can it so act for the sole reason that the person has exercised his or her rights under the chapter entitled "Lease" of the Civil Code of Québec or under the Act respecting the Régie du logement (art. 1899 C.C.Q.)

No person may harass a student in such a manner as to limit the student's right to peaceable enjoyment of the premises or to induce him or her to leave the room. In case of a violation, punitive damages may be claimed (art. 1902 C.C.O.).

Any non-performance of an obligation by a party entitles the other party to pursue certain remedies before a tribunal, generally the Régie du logement. These remedies concern, for example, the performance of an obligation, reduction of the rent, resiliation of the lease, damages and, in certain cases, punitive damages.

Charter of human rights and freedoms

These rights and obligations shall be exercised in compliance with the rights recognized by the Charter, which prescribes, among other things. that every person has a right to respect for his or her private life, that every person has a right to the peaceful enjoyment and free disposition of his or her property, except to the extent provided by law, and that a person's home is inviolable.

The Charter also prohibits any discrimination and harassment based on race, colour, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, civil status, age except as provided by law, religion, political convictions, language, ethnic or national origin, social condition, a handicap or the use of any means to palliate a handicap. The Charter also protects seniors and handicapped persons against any form of exploitation.

Any person who is a victim of discrimination or harassment for one of those reasons may file a complaint with the Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la ieunesse.

Access to documents and protection of personal information

If the educational institution is a public body, it shall comply with the prescriptions of the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information. Otherwise, it shall comply with the prescriptions of the Act respecting the Protection of personal information in the private sector.
